

BCTTNS Code of Ethics for the Conduct & Practice of Therapeutic Touch™

As a member of BCTTNS I agree to abide by the following:

- 1: I will conduct my practice of Therapeutic Touch (TT™) in accordance with the generally accepted principles of TT™ as developed by Dolores Krieger, PhD., RN, and Dora Kunz, and in a manner that upholds the reputation held by Therapeutic Touch™ throughout the world.
- 2: In all Therapeutic Touch™ sessions, I will maintain the highest integrity, keeping the interests of the client foremost. All interpersonal transactions between the client and me will be non-exploitative and appropriate to their care.
- 3: The client will receive only Therapeutic Touch™ unless I have informed consent and explicit permission, by the client, to include other adjunctive skills, therapies and energy modalities for which I am qualified.
- 4: I will make clear to the client, in advance, any fees that I charge for my service.
- 5: I will keep all personal information of clients in the strictest confidence.
- 6: I will conduct myself in an ethical and respectful manner whenever practicing, representing or participating in any Therapeutic Touch™ function.
- 7: I will regularly evaluate my strengths, limitations and levels of effectiveness, and strive to enhance my abilities by means of further education, practice & training in Therapeutic Touch™.
- 8: I will not hold BCTTNS responsible for any consequences resulting from my practice and/or giving TT™ instructions to others.
- 9: I will actively support BCTTNS by interest, and/or participation in Conferences, AGMs and other network activities.
- 10: If I am aware of unprofessional behaviour or that this Code of Ethics has been breached, I will address this with the person involved and/or report it in writing to the BCTTNS Board of Directors for follow up.
